From Barcelona Airport:

Train is the easiest way to go from Barcelona to Banyuls-sur-Mer.

A train shuttle Line L2 links Terminal 2 (the small one, for cheap flights, Terminal 1 is the main terminal) to the main Barcelona train stations (for information and timetables see <https://www.barcelona-airport.com/eng/barcelona-airport-train.php>). You can buy tickets to Port Bou (the Spain/France border) directly in the airport and make the connection L2/Regional train (to Port-Bou) either in the train stations Barcelona Sants or Passeig de Gracia (in this last case both train arrive and leave from the same platform).

Other option: the line L9 connects both Terminals to "Zona Universitaria" (<https://www.aeropuertobarcelona-elprat.com/ingl/metro-to-barcelona-airport-L9sud.htm>). Once you are in Zona Universitaria, you have to transfer to Metro Line L3 (green line) and this line crosses all Barcelona (including Sants train station and Passeig de Gracia)

You can obtain time tables for Regional trains (indicated REGIONAL or MD) at the RENFE website: <http://www.renfe.com/EN/viajeros/horarios.html> with Port-Bou as destination. By clicking on the train number you obtain detailed time tables.

Taxi can be arranged from Port-Bou to Banyuls-sur-Mer (please let us know your arrival time in Port-Bou in order to organize taxi transfer by group if possible).

TAXI REIMBURSEMENT RULES: please remember that according to the Cost rules taxi can be reimbursed only when a public transport is not available or if it's taken before 7 am to facilitate an early departure and/or if a taxi is taken after 10 pm due to a late arrival.

Questions and remarks can be sent to Anne-Marie Genevière (anne-marie.genevriere@obs-banyuls.fr).
